FRED WELDON TO DISCUSS HIS VIEWS
OF UNIVERSITY'S FUTURE
THURSDAY NOON AT ARK

MISSOULA--

Dr. Fred A. Weldon, director of the Center for Student Development at the University of Montana, will discuss how he envisions the University's future at noon Thursday (Oct. 18) at the Ark, 538 University Ave.

Weldon's discussion, which is open to the public without charge, will be the first in a series of four noon conversations sponsored alternate Thursdays during fall quarter at the Ark by the Campus Christian Ministries. Theme of the series is "Toward a Definition of the University."

Organizers of the series include the Rev. Gayle Sandholm, Methodist campus pastor; Rev. David VanDyck, pastor of the United Campus Christian Fellowship, and the Rev. Gilbert Splett, Lutheran campus pastor.

Besides the University and its goals, topics in the series will focus on post-secondary education in Montana.

UM President Robert T. Pantzer is scheduled to be the next speaker in the series on Nov. 1.
